Sponsored by: AdCare Educational Institute*

June 5, 2008

Registration fee: $25.00 per person

Center for Training & Professional Development, JRI Health-3rd Floor Boston, MA

Target Audience: This training is specifically intended for Housing Advocates, Housing Case Managers, and Housing Program Directors. If you are not a Housing Advocate, Housing Case Manager, or Housing Program Director, but would like to attend this training, please call Courtney or Rachel of the AIDS Housing Corporation at 617-927-0088 to discuss whether or not this training will meet your needs.

Description: Many of the clients living in HIV housing struggle with co-occurring disorders including mental health issues. This training will provide a context for mental health issues for HIV housing program staff, discuss ways to work with clients with mental health issues in congregate settings, including negotiating the issues that arise in congregate housing settings; and provide strategies and tools for managing crisis and emergencies.

Cost: $25.00 per person

Time: 9:00am-9:30 am – Registration and Continental Breakfast – training will begin promptly at 9:30 am, the training will take place 9:30 am until 4:00. Latecomers will not be seated after 10:00 am.

CEUs: Certificates of Completion will only be awarded to individuals who have completed the full day/s training and have paid all of the necessary registration fees.
